News and Views . . .

and what have you

by BOB CRAIG

After hurricane Carla got through with its destruction of property in South Texas it makes our problems up this way very small in comparison. A storm like this points up the fact that man has made very little progress in his battle with nature. About the only gain we have made is in our warning system that saved thousands of lives. But anything that couldn't be moved out of the way of the storm didn't fare any better in this modern age of Science than it did a 100 years ago.

Within the next two weeks there will probably be a big drive for food, money and clothing for the victims of the storm's wrath. If you are called on to give be sure to stop and think about how much you would appreciate the help were you in the condition of most of the people on the coast.

Some of the discussion about the hurricane has been centered around whether or not the people could collect on their insurance if their property was damaged by the flood waters.

A check with an insurance agent here reveals that if the winds get up to hurricane force all of the damage is considered caused by the hurricane and is covered. If the winds were not considered hurricane winds it would be listed as a flood and would not be covered.

Time is fast approaching for Hamlin School's annual homecoming with the weekend of October 6-7 scheduled for the activities. This is the Pipers' next home game and their opponent will be Childress which should furnish the Pipers their strongest opposition before district play starts.

Most of the people who work on the homecoming each year express disappointment in the turnout of local exes. This is probably a problem faced with every ex-student organization that tries to have a homecoming. Homecoming tends to be more for the older exes with most of the younger ones not to be concerned one way or another. This isn't necessarily good but I for one don't know the answer to the problem.

Probably it would help the town and the homecoming if more of the business district took a bigger part in the affair.

I was asked to say something about homecoming in this column by several exes and I have tried but I am not much of one to give advice on the subject since I went to see the Texas Tech and Baylor ballgame last year during Stamford's homecoming.

An editor in one of the so-called undeveloped Latin-American nations has written that North America advertising methods could do more to increase the wealth of his country than any United States aid program.

"Advertising like that in North America would teach our people to use wealth which is already available to us," the editor wrote.

"Take the electric refrigerator. Our people consider it a luxury. But it more than pays for itself in food saved and ice bills. When the North America woman buys it on time payments, she is actually saving money while enjoying the convenience.

"And there's tractors and other farm implements. Our farmers do not save money when they work with animals and their hands, but they think they do. Fifty years ago, North Americans thought the same way. Persistent advertising was the main factor which changed thinking," the editor wrote.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. West have had their son, Tommy F. from Detroit, Michigan, who is a Pfc. with the United States Army. Guests over the weekend were Mrs. West's mother, Mrs. T. E. Lail and her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Curtis all from Glenrose and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Turner.

Work Started Here on Homecoming

Plans are now underway for the seventh annual Homecoming for exes of the Hamlin Schools to be held October 6 and 7.

Registration headquarters will be set up in the building formerly occupied by the Style Mart on South Central. Mrs. Jack Vaughan and Mrs. Jack Wicker are in charge of the registration, and urge the local exes to register early and purchase tickets for the Saturday luncheon.

The schedule of events will include:

Friday, October 6
3:15 p.m.—Pep rally down Hamlin.
8 to 10:30 p.m.—Football game. . . Hamlin vs. Childress
Half-time—Crowning of the Ex-student Queen and the Homecoming Queen.
10:30—Coffee at the high school gymnasium.

Saturday, October 7
10:00 a.m.—Registration at high school

10:30 a.m. Business and Program
12 noon—Lunch in the high school gym, served by Underwood's Barbecue.

According to a spokesman for the planning committee, it is hoped that all exes of the Hamlin Schools will start making plans now to attend and will urge others to "talk Homecoming" so that together we might make this the best homecoming ever.

W. H. CARTER GINS AREA'S FIRST COTTON AT NEINDA GIN

W. H. Carter of Sylvester brought in the first bale of cotton in the area this past week end. It was ginned by the Neinda Farmers Cooperative Gin and weighed 450 pounds.

The 1800 pounds of seed cotton was picked from 10 acres on the Waldrop farm. The 450 pound bale brought 35c a pound, according to Hollis Madden, manager of the Neinda Gin.

The Hamlin Board of Community Development will present their annual $50 check for the first bale to Carter Tuesday morning at its regular board of directors meeting, President Fred Smith said this week.

Ballots have been prepared and mailed to all producers of record, along with voting instructions. Any eligible voter, says Jones, may obtain a ballot at the Anson ASCS Office.

The first bale of cotton for the Hamlin Gin was ginned Monday about 1 p.m. at the Hamlin Farmers Coop Gin, according to a report from Watt Fletcher, gin manager.

A. J. Dipple, whose farm is located north of the bridge between here and Old Glory, brought in the 2,150 lbs. of cotton which ginned out a 530 lb. bale.

Dipple was first in the area to bring in a bale of cotton last year.

if for any reason one has not been received by mail. Generally speaking, any producer who is eligible to participate in any of the programs being administered by the ASCS is eligible to vote.

Three regular members and two alternate Committeemen will be elected from each of the four communities in the County. The Communities designated as A, B, C, and D correspond to the County Commissioners Precincts 1, 2, 3, and 4 respectively.

The Community Committee chairmen elected in each of the four communities will meet in a County Convention on the date of September 28, 1961, for the purpose of electing three regular members and two alternates to the 1962 County Committee.

Jones states that committeemen have more responsibility each year in the administration of the various farm programs and urges all eligible producers to exercise their right to vote in this election.

Elementary and Primary Enrollment Showing Gains

The first few weeks of school for the primary and elementary students in Hamlin schools have been very pleasant, according to the principals, Mrs. Fred Smith and Odean Murphree.

Mrs. Smith stated that enrollment for the primary school is still about 10 or 11 short of the records last year, however they are gaining some new students along which will help to bring up the total for the year. The first grades have an enrollment of 84 students, while the second has 77 and the third 80.

The total enrollment for the fourth grade classes is 84 and the three fifth grades total 89, which is about the same as last year, according to Miss Murphree.

COUNTY HIKES TAX RATE 10c

At a meeting of the Commissioners Court of Jones County held August 31, it was voted to increase the tax rate 10c on the $100 valuation. This will cause the farmer to pay $1.50 more per year on a four section of land and the owner of a $15,000 home will pay $1.50 per year more.

This increase from 64c to 74c was deemed necessary due to the high cost of county expenses.

A contract was signed with C. L. Chance, attorney from Austin, to collect the delinquent taxes. Letters will be sent to those owing delinquent taxes and then if payment is not made, suit will be filed against them.

FAIRVIEW CHURCH WINS COUNTY AWARD

The Fairview Baptist Church 7 miles east of Hamlin, received word from Darwin Farmer in Dallas that the church had received the award for the outstanding church participating in the Achievement Program for Jones County.

The church turned in a scrap book to be judged in three areas of: a better church, a better community, and a better world. The competition was not with other churches as much as it was a test of efficiency in the local church. The projects of the church were set up earlier and then had to be completed before August 1st.

The number of projects completed was the basis for the award.

The pastor, the Rev. Doyle Combs, gives credit to the progressive spirit of the local congregation. A special luncheon will be held in Austin in November to honor the pastors of the winning churches.

The award will be presented to the church and the pastor at the annual meeting at Trinity Baptist in Stamford on October 10. The whole church has been encouraged to attend and receive this award. The pastor extends a cordial invitation to anyone without a church home that likes a warm fellowship and a spiritual atmosphere.

The Merkel line is lead by three stalwarts: 205 pound right tackle Bible, who is starting for his third year; 154-pound center McAninch; and 134-pound left guard Sledge.

Tailback Moore, 146-pounder is rated by the local coaches as the Badger's top running threat. In the quarterback slot, 161-pound Russel is rated as a good runner and about average passer who throws to both his ends and backs. The Badgers run most of their

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

Omar Burleson, M. C.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A LONG TIME AGO Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes wrote that he hated a man who "knows"—who is positive. SOME OF OUR SCIENTISTS know, out of something called "engineering truth" and "statistical truth," that the spread of nuclear power to other countries will certainly end in nuclear war.

PROFESSOR CHARLES OSGOOD OF Dartmouth College "knows" that nuclear war is inevitable unless his theory of step by step disarmament is adopted. It seems Dr. Osgood proposes that the United States disarm step by step, in spite of what the Soviet Union may do. He believes that by disarming by stages that the Soviet Union, under world scrutiny, and supposedly out of the goodness of their own hearts, will follow suit. In other words, he believes the reverse of an armaments race will bring peace to the world.

IN RECENT YEARS AND MONTHS we have had a run of bad news, and the time has come when we must make up our minds whether to face it and learn from it, or to shrink into a nervous breakdown with suicidal tendencies.

SOME PEOPLE APPEAR TO BE like the man who is so worried about falling off the top of a 20-story building, that he jumps out of the 10th floor. THE NEWS IS NOT ALL BAD, but unless our Nation faces up to crises with courage and calmness, we are less likely to contribute to stability and peace in the world.

THE BRITISH SCIENTIST Sir Charles P. Snow, in a recent statement, seems to be certain that we confront an "either/or" proposition. Either AUSTIN, Tex.—Radioactive fallout is under close scrutiny at Texas' two testing stations in Austin and El Paso.

Resumption of nuclear testing by the Soviet Union brought on the 24-hour-a-day shift atop the State Health Department building in Austin where sampling devices, working like vacuum cleaners, pull jet streams of air through a filter to measure fallout.

During the four year nuclear test ban, radioactivity got progressively lower. Before the tests were stopped, engineers said it was 50 to 100 times higher. They expect results of Russian shots to begin showing up here within the next few days.

Meanwhile, Gov. Price Daniel announced a survey is being launched in Texas to make fallout shelter space available over the state. He said Col. R. Paul West of the U. S. Army Engineers at Fort Worth, who has been assigned to survey, will work in coordination with the State Civil Defense and Disaster Relief Division and local civil defense officials.

Survey is part of a national program to locate possible fallout shelter space in existing buildings, tunnels and other protected areas.

POULTRY INDUSTRY IN TROUBLE—Texas Agriculture Commissioner John C. White organized a conference of southern Agriculture Commissioners in Atlanta, Ga., to "seek ways and means to help save the poultry industry."

White said they will attempt to find ways to relieve the current "disastrous poultry prices" which are at the lowest point in the history of commercial broiler production.

"This is not just a local situation in Texas," White said. "The entire national broiler industry is suffering from a price depression."

He reported poultry prices dropped in the past week to as low as 10.5 cents per pound, or as much as five cents below cost for many producers.

Meanwhile, the Attorney General's Department is studying the record of a special court of inquiry to determine if anti-trust violations are involved in the price decline.

Witnesses testified the trouble is overproduction. Actually the overproduction is not in Texas but in the 21 other broiler producing states.

Phil Friberg, manager of the Western Hatcheries in Gonzales, said 50 per cent of Texas' broiler producers will be out of business if something doesn't happen.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson wants to determine if "there is any effort to price the Texas poultry producer out of business."

PADRE ISLAND STUDY ORDERED—Governor Daniel has taken up Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler's recommendation that feasibility study be made to determine whether Padre Island beaches should be turned into a state park area.

Sadler said the Governor agreed to appoint a statewide committee with instructions to report quickly. The long, slender island, a potential playground paradise, has been the center of controversy since it was proposed that a large portion of it be turned over to the federal government for a national park area.

LOAN COMPANIES CLEARED OF ANTI-TRUST CHARGE—A civil anti-trust suit alleging 31 loan companies conspired to push punitive small loan laws through the Texas Legislature has been dismissed by Federal Judge Ben Rice Jr. in Austin.

Suit, filed by J. L. House Jr. who operates a small loan business in Waco and other cities, charged that large Texas and out-of-state loan companies conspired to secure enactment of laws that would "destroy the small loan business of the plaintiff and all others similarly situated."

Judge Rice held the allegations did not show sufficient cause against the defendant companies to warrant a court trial.

OIL PRICES HIT—Governor Daniel joined independent producers in pleas for action to stem the tide of falling Texas crude oil prices.

"In view of rising equipment and operating costs, crude purchasers should be thinking of some price increase," he said.

NEINDA PHILOSOPHER COMES UP WITH PROPOSAL THAT WORLD'S CRISES BE PUT ON A QUOTA BASIS

Editor's note: The Neinda Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Route 1 has an odd notion this week, but there's nothing odd about that.

Dear editor:

I'm not telling anybody how to run a newspaper, but as a farmer who knows what it is to be a victim of over-production, at least somebody else's over-production, I would like to suggest to the newspapers of this country, especially the big city dailies, that the crisis market in this world is being swamped and if it keeps going like it has the past few months its fight to restore constitutional government."

He said he will gladly serve "the party of his new choice" in any capacity, no matter how small.

But he left the door open to run for Governor again. He polled some 620,000 votes in a two-man race that Governor Daniel won with 909,000 votes in 1960.

ROAD MAINTENANCE FUNDS NEEDED — State Highway Commission is asking more flexibility in use of funds for maintenance of Farm-to-Market roads.

Problem today is adequate maintenance, improvement and reconstruction of roads already built. Therefore, a portion of the total F-M earmarked funds must be spent for maintenance.

Governor Daniel vetoed the earmarked construction funds for the second year of the new biennium as a step in this direction. The Highway Department expects legislation to be introduced at the coming special session to finish the job.

SHORT SNORTS

About a nickel a day—that's what tax experts figure the new sales tax will cost the average Texan whose income is figured in the three-to-four-thousand-dollar bracket.

State Treasurer Jesse James reports a slump of $57,746 in August sales of cigarette tax stamps.

H. S. (Hank) Brown, president of the Texas AFL-CIO, predicts the Texas Sales tax "will retire more legislators than ever before in history." He predicted "Texas will not take this tax."

"School Traffic Safety Week" has been designed as September 18-22 by Governor Daniel, who appeals for "vigorous traffic safety programs" throughout the state.

Labor Day Weekend was the safest in Texas since 1946 with only 19 fatalities recorded by Department of Public Safety against expected 30. There were 17 for comparable period in 1946.

DEMOCRAT TURNS RE-

PUBLIC—Jack Cox of Breckenridge, former member of the Texas House of Representatives who ran as a democrat for Governor in 1960, announced he is enlisting in the Republican Party "as a buck private."

"I can no longer support nor be a part of the Democrat Party under its present leadership and political platforms," he said. "And I shall immediately exercise my constitutional privilege of pledging my efforts and dedicating whatever abilities I may have to assist the Republican Party in newspapers are either going to have more crisis news than they can handle or the people are going to get tired of reading about it.

In fact, after reading all the headlines about Berlin, Cuba, Brazil and a few months back, the Congo, Egypt, and all those other crises which sounded world-shaking at the time but have now faded from memory, I have come to the conclusion that what the world needs is a crisis quota. Running a country is not much different from running a farm; very few people can do it successfully.

So, the world ought to be divided into twelve zones, and only one zone allowed to have a crisis at a time, and that one limited to one month. Any time a crisis can't run its course in a month, somebody is just hogging the news. Thus we'd have only twelve a year, and never more than one at a time. You take a country whose crisis allotment comes in January, and it gets to itching to have one in November, it'll just have to wait. There's nothing worse or harder on newspaper readers than having two or three crises at the same time, not to mention how hard it is on Washington to get enough officials to fly to them, or on the newspapers to find enough reporters to cover them all.

Oh, I know some people will say we could save money by having one diplomat attend to three or four crises on the same trip, but it's asking too much, he'll get home and start trying to remember how much money he promised which country. One crisis a month, twelve a year, ought to be the maximum. Otherwise the crisis business is going bankrupt. Over-production can play thunder with the crisis market the same as it can with us farmers, and everybody knows the world can't stand to be in the same shape farming's in.

Yours faithfully, J. A.

Pipers Ruin Eagle Opener, 18-0

Scoring in three of the four quarters, the Pipers overpowered the Seagraves Eagles, 18-0, Friday night scoring on two pass plays and a quarter-back sneak.

The passing combination of quarterback Stanley Austin to end Jimmy Cooper was good for the two scores in the first half of the game played in Eagle stadium and a four yard sneak by Austin was good for the final tally. All three of the attempts for the points after failed, leaving the Pipers scoreless in this department for the first two games of the young season.

Top ground gainer for the night was halfback Dan Newberry with 47 yards in 10 carries for an average of 4.7 yards per carry. Fullback Rayford Williams was the top gainer per carry with 36 yards in six trips for a six yard average. Other Piper runners and their averages were: halfback Van Newberry with 36 yards in seven carries for a 5.1 average, Austin with 27 yards in nine runs for a three yard average and fullback Frankie Lee with 17 yards in seven carries for a 2.4 average.

the Eagles to 72 yards on the ground and 50 yards in the air. The defense was lead by center and linebacker Jerry Duncan.

The Pipers lost the coin toss and kicked off to the Eagles. The Pipers drew 10 of the 50 yards in penalties accessed against them during the night before the first play from scrimmage could be unreel. The Pipers were offside on the first two snaps of the ball giving the Eagles their first first down before the game could get started. After this the Pipers settled down and forced the Eagles to punt with Cooper returning the ball to the Seagraves 47 yard line.

Dan Newberry picked up four yards, followed by Lee with two and then Austin skirted the right end for nine yards to the 32. Van Newberry drove for four yards but then Lee was dropped for a three yard loss. Austin tried his right end again for five yards and then six yards for the first down. Lee picked up five, Austin two and Dan Newberry made a first down on the Eagle 10 on a three yard run. Austin took to the air with a pass to Cooper that was good for the tally with 3 minutes and 25 seconds left in the first quarter. The two-point try failed and the Pipers lead, 6-0.

After the kickoff the Eagles drove to the Piper 45 before punting to the 18. After the Pipers picked up a first down and three seconds left in the first half. The Pipers lost the ball on a fumble three plays deep in the second half with the Eagles taking over on the Piper 47. Failing to make a first, the Eagles punted with the Pipers taking over on their 20 yard line. Williams gained two, Van six and Dan three for the first on the 31. Seagraves drew a 15 yard penalty to the 46 from where Williams fought for seven and Dan picked up a first with three yards. Van was stopped for no gain before Dan picked up the first in two carries of five and six yards. Austin carried for four and then Van ripped off ten yards to the Eagle 19. Williams carried for six yards and then five to the Seagraves eight yard line. Dan carried to the four as the third quarter ended. Austin tried the middle and was held for no gain and then hit it again for the four yards needed for the final tally. Again the two point try failed and the Pipers lead 18-0. Late in the final quarter the Eagles moved the ball from their 25 yard line down to the Piper 22 before Austin stopped the drive with a pass interception on his 15 yard line.

Running from the quarter-back slot, Van ran out the clock with a seven yard sneak.

Ask Amy

BY AMY ADAMS

PROMISES ARE NOT TO BE BROKEN

Dear Amy:
If you would advise me what to do I shall always be grateful. My mother passed away recently. During her illness, I promised her that if I ever had a girl, I would name it after her.

I am going to have a baby next month and would like to know if it's a girl, would it be bad luck to name her after my mother since she is dead? My husband would just like to give the baby the middle name after my mother. Would it be wrong to do that since I told my mother I would give the baby her whole name?

Mrs. W.C.
Don't hesitate to name the baby after your mother. I assure you, it is not bad luck. If you loved your mother, keep your promise. Good luck . . . and I hope it's a girl!

Dear Amy:
The 18 year-old who signed herself 'Black and Blue' had it pretty good. I am only 13 but have had almost 6 years of this mess. I have a step-father who has a violent temper. He throws radios at me and two or three times, he's kicked me in the back. The first time I ended up in the hospital with a ruptured nerve in the left leg. And as soon as I got out, he lost his temper again and kicked me. Mother just stands by and laughs her fool head off!

I haven't very many friends because after they meet him, golly, are they scared! Every night I go to bed crying. I can't wait until I am of age to get away from this madman.

Dear Julia:
Please accept my sympathy and advice. Ask a priest, the guidance counselor at school or an adult friend to contact the juvenile authorities. At the rate your mother and step-father are mutilating you, you may not make it until you 'are of age'!

Dear Amy:
Shortly before my husband and I were married (a little over a year ago), we purchased a house and furniture from a friend of his who was moving to Virginia. We were thrilled to have our own home as I suppose most folks are.

Over a year later we discovered a finance company had a mortgage on our furniture, not because we'd ever had any dealings with them but because this 'friend' had borrowed money against it. Though we had a bill of sale, the furniture wasn't even paid for when the loan was made against it. It didn't seem worth the money, time and trouble for us to take it to court when we might lose anyway. The lawyer's minimum fee would have been $150 plus other costs and the finance company was suing us for $300 for "Wrongfully holding their furniture." Our lawyer told us that any purchase over $500 should be checked with the county clerk for loans recorded against it.

The finance company came with the sheriff and the necessary legal papers and stripped our house. So it seems to me that these companies take advantage of poor people and push them a few notches farther down. I'll admit they may be helpful in a few cases, but they're definitely not a charity organization. Please print this so others can learn from our mistakes.

Mrs. M.M.
Finance companies are not charitable organizations. They are in business to make a profit. However, they did not take advantage of you . . . your 'friend' did!

Dear Amy:
I have been going with a girl for two years and I like her very much. My problem is that she mothers me constantly—even in public. She's always tidying my clothes, telling me to be careful, combing my hair, etc.

How can I cure her of this habit without hurting her feelings.

Dear Bob:
Get her a kitten and let her make IT purr-fect!

Please address all letters to:

REPLICA OF PROJECT MERCURY CAPSULE TO BE AT STATE FAIR

A replica of the capsule in which America's first astronauts, Commander Alan B. Shepard and Capt. Virgil Grissom, were launched into space this year, will be exhibited along with other space age displays at the 1961 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7-22, Dallas.

The full-size model of the capsule used in "Project Mercury" is being sent to the State Fair by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The capsule will be occupied by a dummy astronaut in flight position atired in an actual space suit like those worn by Shepard and Grissom. The capsule replica also has a simulated instrument panel and control board of the type used by the astronauts.

The space capsule will be on exhibit in the Varied Industries Building at the State Fair. Other NASA exhibits will illustrate the many aspects of Project Mercury which include wind tunnel tests, capsule drop tests, capsule fabrication, astronaut selection and training, test firings, the chimpanzee "Ham" space flight and the flight of Astronaut Shepard in the Freedom 7 rocket.

Another space age exhibit by the Convair division of General Dynamics will be devoted to the Atlas missile program which is designed to put an astronaut into orbit around the earth.

The Federal Aviation Authority will have a number of exhibits demonstrating how aircraft traffic is regulated. They will include an actual weather reporting station, sector control equipment used to direct traffic in the air corridors, a working model of a modern airport, operating radar for tracking aircraft and a simulated flight control tower where fairgoers can participate in controlling a simulated approach and landing by a model airplane.

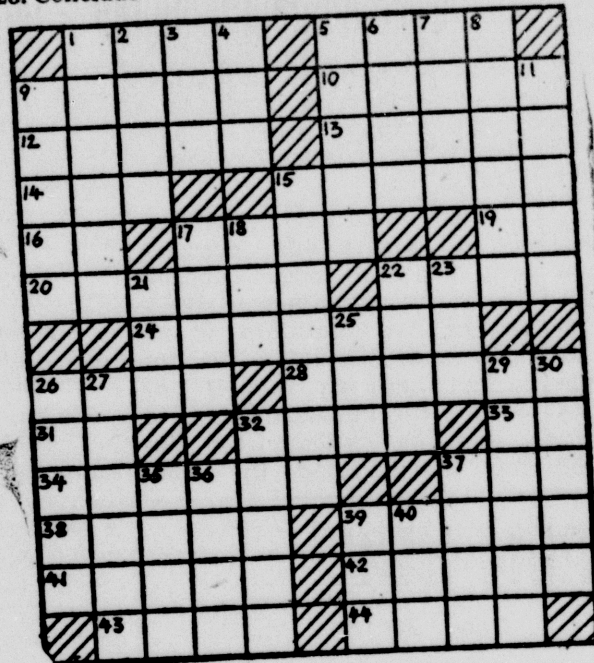

Also on exhibit at the State Fair will be several actual Army missiles, including a Lacrosse, a giant Redstone and a little John rocket.

If you just made a left-hand turn from the right-hand lane, you are probably just careless, and not what the driver behind you called you.

LOCAL BUSINESS . . .

S. S. Talbert, Ph. D.
Chairman, Dept. of Journalism
University of Mississippi

Very successful men can at times say some very foolish things.

In a recent speech an official of a low cost American automobile manufacturing company highly praised newspaper advertising for its flexibility, timeliness and completeness. He stated that his company owed its half-century success to newspaper advertising.

These comments were not foolish; they were based on the truth.

However, he went on to say that newspaper advertising should be more selective. He meant that he would like to pay for advertising only to those people who would be likely to buy one of his automobiles. This was a foolish observation. No one, but no one, knows who is a potential buyer of a Chevrolet, Ford or Volkswagen.

In fact, one of the great advantages of newspaper advertising is the fact that it is not selective. Newspaper advertising is the great locator of prospects. Nearly every newspaper family is able to own one or more low cost automobiles. The problem of the local salesman is to discover which of these families is in the market for an automobile at a particular time.

Such locating of prospects can not be done with "selective" advertising. It must be done with universal advertising which is possible only through local newspapers. The great grocery stores and some oil companies are well aware of the necessity of universal advertising and are the best customers for newspaper space.

The automobile advertiser—or any other advertiser who hopes to sell to the general public—can not find an audience any more selective than the newspaper family unless he is prepared to give up a large part of his market to competitors who recognize the importance of finding prospects.

It takes hundreds of nuts to hold a car together, but only one behind the wheel to scatter it all over the landscape.

FAIRVIEW NEWS--

By MRS. ELMER JOINER

The hurricane on the Texas coast about dwarfs all of the news this Monday morning. Hearing about all of the water and destruction wrought by Carla makes you proud to live in dry West Texas where a four-inch rain is really headlines.

Several visitors were present at church Sunday morning. Mrs. Allen and three children, who live north of the Stamford highway on an oil lease attended and Jimmy Joiner, Jeannie and Ronald of Stamford.

Coming back home for a visit was Mrs. O. L. Jenkins, from Hamlin.

We were all so sorry to learn that Mrs. John Dutton had fallen and injured her back severely, and is in the Anson Hospital. The exact nature of her injury was not learned, but do know that it is very serious. Mrs. Dutton has many friends in our community and we all hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Woodrow Goodwin has been on the sick list for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Winson Gray had Mr. Gray's brother and family, the Doyle Grays, from San Fernando, California, visiting last week. Also meeting with her brothers were Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Pyrom of Hodges.

Mrs. O. L. Jenkins reported that her grandson Jimmy Jenkins, had visited with her last week. Jimmy is the son of Rev. and Mrs. John Jenkins, who has recently moved to Flagstaff, Arizona, and was enroute to Baylor University where he is to attend school. He is studying to be a Baptist minister.

Mrs. Bill Neville of Anson, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Henry, were Sunday afternoon visitors of the Woodrow Goodwins.

Jimmy Joiner and children spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Joiner.

Mr. Jack Gray is still in the hospital, but is reported to be recovering satisfactorily, and will be home in a few days. The men are planning to help him out Thursday of this week by breaking his wheat ground, if it doesn't rain. We still think we have the best folks anywhere when it comes to helping those that are sick or in need of help any way.

Rev. and Mrs. Doyle Combs and children had lunch with Mr. and Mrs. John Beauchamp and Debra Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Jones went to Stamford again Sunday to see his brother, N. W. Jones, who is in the hospital.

Linda Goodwin's friend, Sue Roddy, came after her Saturday and they went to town to the show.

All of the children are very busy in school again, as it is that time of year. Teresa and Lynn Gabriel are attending school in Anson this year, as their mother has a beauty shop there and they go with her. Little brother, Tommy, who is just starting to school this year prefers to go to Hamlin, so he rides the bus to school. Stay in there Tommy, you will make a loyal Hamlinite.

Cotton in our community is looking very good since the nice rain last week. Farmers are afraid to make any estimates, since an early freeze could be very harmful, but if things work out right they could harvest a bumper crop, despite the gloomy outlook at the beginning of the season. Maize has been combined and turned out very good.

This reporter is going on vacation the next two weeks, so if you miss our little news, that will be the season you won't see it, so maybe when we return we will be full of news.

Columnist Henry McLemore: "It's entirely possible to be killed at 10 miles per hour, but it's nowhere near as assured as at 70 or 80!"

AS IT LOOKS FROM HERE

Omar Burleson, M.C.
17th District, Texas

WASHINGTON, D. C.—WE ORDINARILY THINK OF the United Nations as dealing only with the matters we read most about in the newspapers. It does, however, deal with a multitude of international problems, among which is an attempt to control the traffic in narcotics.

IN 1953 AN AGREEMENT WAS WORKED OUT which would require all nations to report on the production and shipment of opiate drugs. Since that time, the situation in this country has considerably improved.

HOWEVER, THE MATTER HAS BEEN reopened, and unless something is done, there is danger of relaxing existing regulations.

AMONG OTHER CHANGES PROPOSED, one would permit countries not previously engaged in opium exports an unrestricted production up to five tons annually, without accounting. It would relax the requirement that a demand on the exporting nation for explanations and reports be made. Nation members which first agreed to present limitations would no longer be obligated to observe import quotas which have been established.

THE UNITED STATES SHOULD OPPOSE these changes and insist that more strict controls be agreed to, rather than that those now in effect be relaxed.

IT IS, OF COURSE NECESSARY AND DESIRABLE that drugs be imported for medical purposes, but the strictest possible control should be placed against opiates finding their way into the hands of smugglers and criminals—and so on into the United States where the prices and profits of the racketeers would be greatest.

I HAVE BEEN OFFERED THE APPOINTMENT as one of the two Delegates representing the Congress in the regular session of the United Nations this fall. While other great issues such as Berlin may be a part of it, should I accept, it would be my desire to participate in this matter of control.

A Canton, Pa., motorist bought a horse and buggy after losing his driver's license for speeding. He hung this sign on the buggy: "Drive slow or you, too, will ride this way."

DePriest Students Complete Initiation Week With Program

The DePriest chapter of new Homemakers of America concluded their initiation week last Friday with a special chapel program for the student body. This activity concluded a week of hard work for the new members as they found themselves busy acquainting themselves with the creed, purposes, song, history, by-laws and program of the organization for this year.

The program consisted of the initiation service for the new members and a skit entitled "The Echo." Participating in the initiation service were Jo Anne Johnson, president; Mildred Huitt, vice president and Charlene Jefferson, secretary.

The skit presented by Charlene Jefferson, Betty Johnson, Rosie Lee Delce, Eva Jane Nabors and Sandra Covington, enlightened the school on the goals of homemaking. It demonstrated how each member can work to help reach the goals, how each member's life reflects the training given in Homemaking and how our words reverberate when we hear our echos say "ye are the salt of the earth and the light of the world."

TEXAS HEALTH DEPT. NEWS...

AUSTIN—Several thousand Texans are proof that stroke victims need not lead an invalid life, according to State Health Commissioner J. E. Peavy.

These victims of "cerebral vascular accidents" have been totally or partially rehabilitated and have returned to their jobs or other worthwhile vocations, Dr. Peavy says.

The key to this dramatic advance is starting the rehabilitation process early, as soon as the patient is able to communicate, and consistent continuation of a prescribed series of exercises usually by a physio-therapist with a physician's supervision, Dr. Peavy pointed out.

Today, more progressive hospitals, nursing and convalescent homes no longer consider themselves custodians of stroke victims, but institutions of education and training for the patient and his family. As soon as the immediate task of saving the patient's life has been accomplished, the rehabilitation process begins.

First, the patient must be taught to eliminate fear. This is done by using as examples other patients who have made recoveries or noticeable progress.

The patient must then be motivated to lead a normal life. His accomplishments are noted and complimented. A system of communication is arranged for the patient whose speech is impaired or who cannot speak at all.

A series of simple exercises consisting of massage, movement of the limbs, hands, feet and head are begun under the direction of the attending physician.

As soon as the patient is able to move his limbs, hands or feet, the exercises are increased. He is encouraged to do the exercises without assistance, and to add others as prescribed by his doctor.

He is encouraged to assist in feeding and bathing himself—first with assistance and then on his own. Finally, he is encouraged to sit, stand and eventually to walk. He is taught to open doors and dial phones. The patient is now on his way to being rehabilitated.

While patients in many hospitals get this kind of care, some stroke victims are not taken to hospitals but are kept at home. In addition, many patients are taken home before rehabilitation is completed. Doctors know that even these patients need not become invalids, but with proper rehabilitation, started early, and continued with consistency, they can walk again and—in many cases—return to their jobs.

(A weekly feature of the Health Education Division, Texas State Department of Health.)
